PASSPORT VALIDITY, TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION & B2 TOURIST VISA:

As is customary for international travel, your passport should be valid for at least six months from the date of entry to Israel; otherwise, you may be denied boarding. Please note that travellers from visa-exempt countries are required to obtain an Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA-IL) online prior to their trip. You can do so using the following link: https://israel-entry.piba.gov.il/ (https://israel-entry.piba.gov.il/)

Upon arrival in Israel, you will be issued a B2 Tourist Visa, valid for 90 days. This visa is in the form of a small blue-and-white slip, which you should keep with you and present at your hotel check-in.

Please be aware that, under new Israeli tax laws strictly enforced by all hotels, all guests holding Israeli citizenship—including those with dual passports—whether traveling individually, as part of a group, or as invited local guests, will be charged VAT. To ensure accurate billing, we need this information in advance. If we do not receive it beforehand and hotels charge VAT, we will adjust your billing retroactively to include this additional amount.
