INSURANCE:

We urge you to purchase full cancellation insurance and supplemental medical coverage (which covers pre-existing conditions). This is a smart way to safeguard against life's surprises.

Please note: To receive maximum coverage, it is suggested to purchase travel insurance within 21 days of your first payment towards the trip. Travel insurance is your responsibility but is compulsory for all participants. We cannot recommend any insurance company or policy, and you need to make your own enquiries. We are aware that some insurance companies are not covering Israel.

Amy Wasbutzki of FBI Travel (based on Melbourne, Australia) has advised that both Passportcard and Go Insurance will provide cover for Israel. Other insurers may also offer cover; please make your own enquiries.

If using an insurance service that does not cover Israel (e.g. provided by your credit card), we suggest that participants add Harel Insurance as an additional cover for just the time in Israel.

PASSPORT VALIDITY, TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION & B2 TOURIST VISA:

As is customary for international travel, your passport should be valid for at least six months from the date of entry to Israel; otherwise, you may be denied boarding. Please note that travellers from visa-exempt countries are required to obtain an Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA-IL) online prior to their trip. You can do so using the following link: <https://israel-entry.piba.gov.il/> (<https://israel-entry.piba.gov.il/>)

Upon arrival in Israel, you will be issued a B2 Tourist Visa, valid for 90 days. This visa is in the form of a small blue-and-white slip, which you should keep with you and present at your hotel check-in.

Please be aware that, under new Israeli tax laws strictly enforced by all hotels, all guests holding Israeli citizenship—including those with dual passports—whether traveling individually, as part of a group, or as invited local guests, will be charged VAT. To ensure accurate billing, we need this information in advance. If we do not receive it beforehand and hotels charge VAT, we will adjust your billing retroactively to include this additional amount.
